Explore the trails
The Port of Everett has miles of waterfront trails for you to explore.

Travel to the Jetty
Set sail or paddle on over to the 2-mile stretch of sandy beach.

Kayak or standup paddleboard
You can rent a kayak or paddleboard from KayakShare, a self-service kiosk at Jetty Landing Park.

Dine in or take out
The Port has all the menu items you'd expect from a Pacific Northwest seaside town.

Watch for wildlife
The Everett waterfront is home to all sorts of native wildlife, including shore birds, seals, sea lions, whales and more.

Catch of the day
Grab your tackle box and cast a line from the Port's fishing dock located at Jetty Landing.

Pit stop at parks and open spaces
The Port has plenty of parks and open spaces for you to get outside, stretch out and enjoy the rest of the summer sun.

It's always good practice to call ahead or visit the business' website to check updated hours as we safely reopen. Be patient, be kind, stay healthy.
